

St. Michael's Grammar School

Hypar Umbrella Structure

A new landscaped playground area was installed in front of Marlon House in the Junior School which included shade sail structures over the play equipment and two hypar umbrella structures over the sand pits.

The umbrella footings were incorporated into the wall of the sand pit to provide an easy installation.

Client:
St. Michael's Grammar School

Location:
St. Kilda, Vic

Date of Completion:
July, 2007

Product Type:
Hypar Umbrella

Fabric Type:
HDPE - Shadecloth

Steel Finish:
Hot dipped galvanized & powder coated

Scope of Works:
Design
Project Management
Install

Area of Coverage:
36 m²

Function:
Shade protection for two sand pit areas in a new landscaped playground.